How do you as an Election Administrator define Great Service and Support?

It could be defined as:

- A real person answers your call
- That person provides a direct phone number to call before calling the main office
- That person knows who you are
- That person listens carefully and understands the issue you have
- That person understands the system you use to the fullest degree
- That person understands how you intend to use the system
- That person has helped other users with a similar issue before, successfully resolving your issue
- That person and the company has a long history interpreting the election laws of your state and applying them in a practical manner
- That person and the company has a very solid understanding of election practices and statutes common in your state and your county
- That person has installed and supported hundreds of elections over many years successfully
- That person has trained hundreds of poll workers
- That person understands ballot printing issues and how to resolve
- That person knows how the OpenElect System integrates with your poll books, state VR systems, etc.

All of the above describe Unisyn's and our Professional Election Service Providers' commitment to YOU, the customer.
